DRYING UP THE SEAS SENT BY VARUNA

During the month of Chitra (the first month of the Tamil calendar), on the day of the star Chitra, king Abhisheka Pandyan performed special worship to God Somasundara, which extended over a long period. Indra, the Lord of the Devas, who also used to perform the special worship on that day, had to keep waiting till the Pandya king completed his worship. This irritated Indra, felt humiliated.

Seeing the troubled look on Indra's face, Varuna Deva enquired what was troubling him. Indra explained to Varuna the sanctity and greatness of Lord Somasundara in the Madurai temple and added that he felt humiliated, because he was made to wait till a mere mortal king finished his worship. Varuna Deva consoled him and queried whether
